Policy:

This document outlines the company's arrangements for all forms of authorized leave that are available to employees of the company. Considering employee's work life balance and being in compliant with the statutory requirements, Novigo Solutions has framed the below said leave policy.

I. Earned Leave Policy:

- Entitlement per year:
  - 12 days for Designation Level from D1/S1 to D3/S3.
  - 14 days for Designation Level D4/S4 and above.
- Employees can hold 30 days of leave balance and anything beyond, will be lapsed.
- Every Quarter Leave will be credited in the following Process
  - For Designation Level from D1/S1 to D3/S3, 3 days of advance leave will be credited in each quarter.
  - For Designation Level D4/S4 and above, 3.5 days of advance leave will be credited in each quarter.
- If an employee's leave exceeds the entitlement during the period, appropriate deductions will be made in the salary or will be adjusted in the full and final settlement.
- If an employee quits or gets terminated and has a negative leave balance, the balance will be adjusted against any amounts, including salary, payable by company to the employee.
- The employee should inform the supervisor well in advance for any planned leave. However, in case of unforeseen circumstances the employee may inform the supervisor within 24 hours.

II. Sick Leave:

- Every employee is eligible for 6 days of sick leave in ayear.
- For sick leave applied/taken beyond 3 days, should be mandatorily supported with medical proof certified by authorized hospital or Doctors.
- Sick leave cannot be carried forwarded (to the next year) and lapses as on 31st Dec every year.

III. Maternity Leave Policy:

All women employees are entitled to maternity benefits as prescribed under the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 prevailing at the time of pregnancy.

- Women employees are eligible for maternity benefit only if they have worked for a minimum period of 80 days in thecompany.
- The maximum period an employee is entitled to maternity benefit is a total 26 weeks, of which 8 weeks shall be prior to delivery and 18 weeks after delivery of the child. Also, the Original Medical Certificate issued by a doctor indicating the expected delivery date would have to be submitted to the HR team prior to availing any benefit in this regard.
- Eligibility of thisbenefit is restricted up to two surviving children only.
- Pregnancy is not ailment and hence sick leave cannot be clubbed with maternity leave, except in some unavoidable situations.
- If an employee wishes to exercise her option to resign her employment immediately after availing the leave with salary benefit under "Maternity" is accepted only on medical grounds. In such case, the reasons stated in the medical report will be mentioned in the relieving letter.
- Any employee under this act will be eligible for Full month salary without inclusions of the following.
    - Any bonus other than Incentive Bonus.
    - Overtime earnings & any deduction or payment on account of fines.
    - Any contribution paid or payable by the employer to any pension fund or provident fund or for the benefit of the woman under any law for the time being in forceand
    - Any gratuity payable on their termination of service.
- Employee will be entitled to extend the maternity leave after the leave has been being reviewed and approved by the Management. However, this leave would be on a loss of pay basis.

IV. Bereavement Leave Policy:

- In the event of death of a close family member of an employee, the employee is entitled to paid time off from work up to 3 working days. Close family members would include spouse, children, Parents, Grandparents, brother, sister and corresponding in-laws.
- The employee availing bereavement leave should intimate his/her immediate supervisor and HR.

V. Paternity Leave Policy:

- All male employees are entitled to take paternity leave of 3 working days for each instance of child birth, which can be taken any time after the date of delivery of his child but not more than 3 months from date of birth of the child.
- The employee availing Paternity leave should intimate his/her immediate supervisor and HR.

VI. Unpaid Leave of Absence:

- Unpaid leave of absence may be availed only after an employee has exhausted the available leave balance.
- Any request for unpaid leave of absence will be evaluated based on medical proof or any genuine reasons.
- Employees will not be eligible for any compensation-related benefits while on unpaid leave including variable bonus as reviewed and approved by Management. Company insurance benefit will continue throughout the period of absence.
- Employee availing unpaid leave should intimate his/her supervisor and the management. The right to approve such leave is at the sole discretion of the company.
- If any employee is on unpaid leave which will fall on the last working day of the week, then the next two days of the weekend will be counted as unpaid Leaves.

Any exceptions to be reviewed and approved by the CEO.
